The TPS framework will facilitate the placement of students in the first instance, and where this is not possible, provides a refund of unexpended tuition fees (i.e. tuition the student has paid for but has not been delivered by the provider).

- Berkeley Business Institute defaults if the course they offer does not start on the agreed starting day.

- Berkeley Business Institute defaults if the course stops being provided after it starts and before it is completed or the course is not provided fully to the student because the registered provider has had a sanction imposed.

- If Berkeley Business Institute defaults, BBI will refund to the student within 14 days after the default day and receipt of your Refund Application Form.

- Berkeley Business Institute will give the student a statement that explains how the refund amount has been worked out. Berkeley Business Institute dispute resolution processes does not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

- This agreement and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

- The Standards for RTOs require the Institute to inform students considering enrolment of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-to-door sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty.

It must be noted that our Institute does not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period is not applicable to our students who have enrolled into a course. For refund option in other circumstances, students must refer to the refund policy.

- The refund policy is subject to review from time to time.

- The Institute recommends that you read the ESOS Framework Information, which provides legislative protection for International students, available at

<https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>

A student dissatisfied with an activity or a decision regarding their academic outcomes can voice their concerns to the staff member concerned and, if appropriate, appeal to the Principal Executive Officer.

If students are still dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint / grievance / appeal then students may lodge an external appeal or complain about the decision with the Overseas Students Ombudsman.
